Verbatim Growth Monthly Market Commentary - July 2022

In July 2022, global equities rebounded from the previous months' lows and climbed 6.8% for UK sterling investors on the back of strong corporate earnings results and an easing of concerns around the pace of monetary policy tightening measures.

In regional terms, the US bounced back as the best performing major developed market this month, marking 9%, the biggest monthly increase since November 2020. The US technology sector rose 12.2% as positive corporate results from major tech companies boosted returns, and government bond yields pulled back from recent highs. Expectations that the Federal Reserve could slow down interest rate hikes also lifted sentiment following Jerome Powell's well-received speech on the last week of the month.

UK equities also had a strong month, ending July up 3.7%, still being the only major market to hold positive returns year-to-date. Better than expected quarterly results from the banking sector and from oil majors, supported by the commodities and energy prices rally strengthened returns. European equities rose 5.1%, following upbeat corporate earnings along with some easing in concerns on the back of a potential slowdown in monetary policy tightening. Japanese shares climbed 5.5%, while Emerging Market shares saw a decline this month, down -0.4%. Overall, the current earnings season appears to be providing investors with a more reassuring message on growth and profitability than some feared would be the case, and potentially build a solid foundation that could help equities resume a more constructive longer-term path higher.
